Materials available on TASB School Law eSource

Students > Student Health and Welfare

- TASB Legal Services’ Immunization Requirements and Exceptions answers frequently asked questions regarding student immunization and enrollment, including provisional enrollment, specific exemptions, and documentation and notice.

- TASB Legal Services’ article Responding to the Risk of Infectious Disease in Public Schools addresses questions regarding communications, health screening, attendance, and employment matters in times of infectious disease, like Ebola, Enterovirus, or pandemic flu.

- TASB Legal Services’ memo Vaping in Texas Public Schools answers FAQs about vaping and e-cigarettes.

Students > Rights

- TASB Legal Services’ article Student Protests addresses issues that schools may encounter when dealing with student protests, including when a school may discipline expressive conduct.

- TASB Legal Services’ article, Bullying, Cyberbullying, and Hazing provides an overview of legal requirements related to bullying and information regarding when bullying may also be characterized as harassment, hazing, dating violence, or a criminal offense.

- In addition, TASB Legal Services’ Cyberbullying: Anti-bullying Laws in Texas after SB 179 (David’s Law) provides a brief summary of legal developments regarding anti-bullying laws and includes hypothetical scenarios for school officials to consider when responding to cyberbullying.

Students > Virtual Instruction

- TASB Legal Services’ Frequently Asked Questions about Remote Instruction addresses legal issues districts may encounter when implementing a virtual or remote instruction program.

Other Resources

- Texas Education Agency’s (TEA) Coronavirus (COVID-19) Support and Guidance Website includes important resources for districts during the COVID-19 pandemic.